FIRE AND POLICE LINES IN STORE FOR DANCERS

It isn't just a bid to a dance the Spartan citizen gets when he buys a ticket to the Press club's Headline Hop, which will be held in the Scottish Rite Temple, advises Frank Olson, Press club president.

For, according to Olson and his associate dance planners, in addition to admitting San Jose Eds and Co-Eds to a delightful evening of dance music by Scott Held and orchestra (with Marge Malloy), the unique red and white printed passes, which are really press passes, admit bearers through "All Police and Fire Lines and To All Athletic Events," at the Press dance extraordinary.

With reassuring voices the Press club spokesmen faithfully promise that there will be quite enough fire and police lines to go around, as well as enough athletic events to keep the press passes (bids) busy all evening.

The dance is to be informal, with bids (above mentioned press passes) selling on the campus all this week for $1.00.

Spartans Rout Gaels 52-40 In Last League Game To Gain Playoff

RADUNICH BRILLIANT WITH 21 POINTS IN CONTEST

By FRED MERRICK
Spartan Daily Sports Editor

SPARTAN PAVILION, Feb. 18.—Coach Bill Hubbard's Spartan cagers blazed into a white flame here tonight to completely rout St. Mary's defending champions 52-40 and gain a tie for the conference championship with the Santa Clara Broncos. Tonight's contest was the final league game of the Northern California Intercollegiate Basketball Conference.

This victory, which was the seventh straight for the Spartans, slipped the Staters into a play-off game with Barsi's Broncos. Each team has won six and lost two conference contests.

Five "iron men" carried through thirty-eight minutes of the game for the Hubbard five. When they left the court with two minutes remaining, the score stood 50-38, and the packed house arose to salute this squad which came back to blast its way into a first place tie after a disappointing opening in the conference race.

Willie Radunich sparked the Hubbardmen, collecting 21 points from all conceivable positions. Playing his most outstanding game of the year, Radunich continually broke through the Gael defense for shots, or to recover rebounds

LOCALS FACE BRONCS AT AUDITORIUM; FROSH PRELIM

Sparta's white clad hoopmen, who came back from near the conference cellar to knock over Santa Clara, U.S.F., and St. Mary's in order, meet the Bronco cage five tonight at 8 o'clock in the Civic Auditorium to settle the supremacy of the Northern California Intercollegiate Basketball Conference.

Rated as a championship contender before the season got started, San Jose's favorites hit a slump with the conference opening. Two defeats in the first three games landed the Spartans in the lower brackets of the league standings. There the State five found itself and since that time only one team has beaten the Hubbard quintet in nine games. Nevada topped the local team in the first of two games by a 52-48 margin in Reno three weeks ago.

A victory string of seven straight has seen the Spartans stage upset victories over Santa Clara and St. Mary's and pull a last half win out of the coals against the surprising U.S.F. Dons. These same Dons were the ones that gave San Jose another chance at Santa Clara by dropping the Broncos into a position where the winner of the State-St. Mary's game would tie for first place in the standings.

RUBBER CONTEST

Tonight's game carries much significance to the contestants. Santa

THREE S.J. BOXERS WINNERS OVER NORTHMEN

Pete Bolich, Jim Kincaid, and Don Walker were the only Spartan boxers to win against the Washington State Cougars in Pullman, Washington, Saturday night, and the San Jose tourists came out of the losing end of a 5 to 3 score.

Pete Bolich ran his string of victories to 17 straight in decisioning Bob Quiggle in the 165 lb. engagement, while Spartan heavyweight Don Walker scored a second round technical kayo over George Hubert. Jim Kincaid defeated Bob Bates.

Other results:

115 pounds—Douglass Blessinger (W) defeated Dale Wren (SJ).

125 pounds—Andy Tidrick (W) defeated Tony Pisano (SJ).

135 pounds—Paul Waller (W) defeated Paul Tara (SJ).

145 pounds—Bill Allen (W) defeated Bill Bolich (SJ).

175 pounds—Ed McKinnon (W) won from Captain Stan Griffin on a default.

This was the second straight defeat for the Spartans against the northern teams. Thursday night the University of Idaho Vandals pounded out a 6 to 2 shellacking over the San Jose barnstormers.

LEGAL GROUP MEETS TODAY

Prospective Members Asked To Attend

Problems of individual members of the San Jose State college Pre-Legal club will be discussed at a club meeting today noon, according to Mr. O. M. Broyles, adviser of the group. It has been found through experiences that answers to many questions can best be obtained within the group, stated Mr. Broyles.

Each member is requested to bring a friend who is apt to be interested in the club next year. The turnover of members is high because of the transfer of potential lawyers to law schools, according to Mr. Broyles. Five members have announced their intention of entering Santa Clara in the fall. "Former members of the club who are now studying at Stanford and California say the Pre-Legal club has been of great help to them," Mr. Broyles declared.

The Men Edit

"While we won't go so far as to say that Wednesday's Spartan Daily will be twice as good as the papers which the women on the staff help us put out, we do maintain that the all men's edition will be one of the best edited and most interesting Dailies to appear on the campus." Thus modestly spoke Wilbur Korsmeier, executive editor of the San Jose State college daily newspaper, Friday.

All the work on the Wednesday edition of the Daily this week is being done by the men on the staff. A special eight page issue of the paper will appear on the campus Wednesday morning, the whole theme of which will be to prove that although "Five Ladies and One Gentleman" might have been the way things went back in State's early days, it's the guys who run the show now.

Two sport pages, two feature pages, a display of campus photographs, and a special "For Campus Men Only" section edited by Walt Hecox are among the innovations to be introduced by the men.

The all-male staff includes Korsmeier, as executive editor; Ray Minners, managing editor; Ben Hitt, associate editor; Fred Merrick, sports editor; Bill McLean, feature editor; and Eugene Harvis, copy editor.

Press Club Meets Today At 12:30

There will be a meeting of the Press club today at 12:30 in the Publications office, according to Ora Lindquist, club secretary.

All active and non-active members are urged to be present to aid in completing plans for Press dance entertainment program, and to prepare for the bid sales campaign.

The evening meeting which was scheduled for tonight has been postponed.

HITT-ING THE HIGH SPOTS

With BEN HITT

Each year, more and more effort is made on the part of government, school people, and interested citizenry to place the available avenues to education within reach of ever increasing numbers within the ranks of American youth. Scholarships, loan funds, prizes, and work subsidations exist today to the extent of many hundred thousands of dollars, and as the varied systems of American education toward a more intermeshed organization, with the national government lending badly needed encouragement to the evaluation of a few common denominators among the inharmonious systems within the states, American education is beginning to bid fair toward being the accessibility it has been long but untruthfully held to be.

Which is all very nice, and I am sure we will be much nicer boys and girls for it.

But the one thing which youth needs more than anything else to achieve the emotional satiated resignation of maturity with some degree of honest satisfaction it still outlawed and laughed at. Of course, I mean the right to travel and the right to seek some honest measure of carefree adventure, the breadth of background which comes from seeing places you've read about and dreamed about, from feeling the whip of foreign winds in your face, from seeing the endless miles of your own homeland slide gloriously past the train window.

And unless your old man owns a railroad or a couple of steamships, kind reader, you either go to work in the stoke-hold or wait until middle age and maybe a melba toast diet accompanies you upon the long planned argosy. Or still worse, the odds are against your ever swerving from the narrow circle which takes you from job to job or to the mountains for two weeks with pay.

I guess you see what I'm driving at. Being very dense, I fail to see why the railroads, which the government has been supporting ever since the War, do not come across with special cut-rate summer rates for students, or why some of the cash which has been tossed into the mechanical maw of steamship subsidization has not been utilized to foster short time cadetships on round the world cruises and the like. You take it from here.

TRUCKIN' AT THE HEADLINE HOP

All you have to do is to guess Staff Artist Josephine Monnot's last name, and then you'll know who did the work on this block. That's simple enough. The next move is to attend the hilarious, exciting, thrilling, (and any other stray descriptive adjectives) Press Dance Saturday night.

TENNIS MATCH

Wet courts Saturday caused the postponement of the season's opening tennis match with San Mateo junior college here.

George Quetin, varsity manager, announced yesterday that the practice tilt would be held Wednesday on the new San Jose high school courts near Spartan Stadium.

Saturday the Spartan racquetters meet the Gaels of St. Mary's here in the initial Northern California conference battle. The tennis circuit is composed of St. Mary's, Santa Clara, University of San Francisco, San Francisco State, and San Jose State.

Conversation For Two

A Touching Little Opus In Dialogue

The scene is the entrance to an apartment house two blocks from an Eastern college campus. Graham Wright, our hero, is saying good night to Fern Joslin, our heroine. The hour is 1:30; the night is Saturday, or rather Sunday morning.

FERN: Oh, Gra'm, I feel so funny.

GRAHAM: So what?

FERN: Oh nothing. But I think I had too much this time.

GRAHAM: What do you mean, this time?

FERN: But Gra'm, I don't get this way very often.

GRAHAM: Not much.

FERN: Just name one other time when I had too much.

GRAHAM: The last time.

FERN: Now I know you're joking. Because the last time I wasn't with you . . . I mean . . .

GRAHAM: Yes you were.

FERN: What do you mean? Last Saturday I went out with Bill Figley.

GRAHAM: But I brought you home.

FERN: You didn't!

GRAHAM: I did.

FERN: But what happened to Bill?

GRAHAM: They found him trying to pick a fight with a full-length mirror.

FERN: Wh—wh—where did you find me?

GRAHAM: Under the table.

FERN: What was I doing there?

GRAHAM: Carving your initials on the floor with a nail-file.

FERN: What had I been drinking.

GRAHAM: What do you remember drinking?

FERN: Two beers, two highballs, and a Boilermaker.

GRAHAM: After that you had a shot of panther soup and two Hecox specials.

FERN: No wonder I had a hangover last night.

GRAHAM: Did it last a week?

FERN: No, only to Wednesday.

GRAHAM: Well, good night, sweet stuff.

FERN: Gra'm.

GRAHAM: Yes?

FERN: I think I had too much this time.

GRAHAM: Well, I'll just tell your psychology prof that your experimental survey on the effects of alcohol can not be completed due to the impossibility of assimilating available data on the subject.

FERN: Thank you, Gra'm. But I so wanted to make my project a success.

EDITORIAL

Tonight is a big night at the Civic Auditorium. Spartans will again be clashing with Broncos. And with it will be an intense heated rivalry. We've had a lot of things to razz our opponents during the past weeks, and we may have again tonight. But let wait until the contest is over and the championship is ours. Show your true Spartan spirit and good sportsmanship. And when the gun goes off, perhaps we can yell, scream, and go "batty" with an all-expressive phrase—POOR BRONCOS!

Collins Runs Second In PAA 600 Yard Run; Sunseri Vaults Fourth

Spartan Leader Heads Field For First Three Laps

CIVIC AUDITORIUM, S. F., Feb. 19.—After setting a blistering pace for the first two laps of the 600 yard run here tonight, Captain Owen Collins of the San Jose State track team followed Ray Mallot of Stanford into the tape as the Indian captain established a new record for the event in the 47th running of Pacific Association Indoor track and field championships. Collins stepped into the lead at the crack of the gun and led the field for the first two laps of the four lap sprint, but Mallot passed Collins on the backstretch, and led the Spartan flyer into the finish. In running second, Collins undoubtedly set a faster time than the existing record.

The Spartan relay team, again sparked by Collins after leading for the first two men, slipped behind and finished third, crossing the finish line behind the California freshmen and varsity teams. Stanford finished fourth. Collins, Alder Thurman, Larson, and Hugh Staley comprised the team.

Tony Sunseri, outstanding sophomore pole vaulter, kept up the with the best of the ceiling scrapers until 13 feet was reached, when he flicked the bar off with his chest on his final vault. Sunseri finished in fourth place.

Gene Sunia, running his first race in intercollegiate competition, showed great possibilities in the 1000 yard race which was on by former Stanfordite Bill McCurdy.

Bob Pierce, Al Parr, and Ed Vasconcellos all failed to qualify in the 50 yard dash, while Larson and Staley failed to qualify in the 60 yard high hurdles.

"Tickle" Vasconcellos reached a height of 5 feet 10 inches in the high jump before being eliminated by two freshman jumpers from California and Stanford. Parr, and Vasconcellos and Larson failed to qualify in the triple jump, while Vin Ruble was forced to drop out of the two mile run.

San Jose, Fresno State College To Resume Athletic Relations With Track Meet On April 16

Jack Phelps Wins In Pebble Beach Golf Tournament

After a poor qualifying round due to the adverse weather conditions prevailing at Del Monte on Friday, Jack Phelps, San Jose State's No. 1 golfer, came through to win the third flight in the varsity division of the California Intercollegiate golf tournament on the Pebble Beach course Saturday.

Warren Keeley and Bill Cureton, playing in the freshman division, won second and third places respectively for San Jose State in a medal tourney. Keeley carded a total of 262 for three rounds while Cureton's card totaled 268 to win the third spot.

Under weather conditions of wind and rain that left most of the entire soaked to the skin, Bill Hern turned in the best score for State with a card of 92 for the eighteen holes. Warren Keeley had a 95, Bill Cureton a 97, Jack Phelps scored a 99, while Ken Hornlein picked up. Best qualifying round was scored by Al Hyman who carded an 83.

First Meeting Of Spartans And Bulldogs Since June, 1935

(Exclusive to the Spartan Daily)

By BEN JOHNSON
Assistant Sports Editor

Athletic relations between two of California's largest state colleges will be resumed on Saturday, April 16 when the San Jose State college track and field team journeys to the San Joaquin valley to tangle with the team wearing the colors of Fresno State college.

Not since June, 1935 has a Spartan team tangled with a like group representing the Bulldogs of Fresno State when Coach Charlie Walker's mermen handed the valley splashers a 64 to 20 trouncing.

that allowed the Spartans to control the ball most of the time. Sneaking behind the St. Mary's guard, the Spartan center tallied several times from directly under the basket. Radunich scored 12 points in the first half.

NEVER THREATEN

St. Mary's led just once during the game and that was in the opening minutes when Anderson tanked the initial basket for the Gaels. From there the Spartans took control. The Moragans never threatened in the second half when Kotta and McPherson moved into action to aid Radunich with the scoring chores.

The State quintet built its advantage to 10 points mid-way in the final period at which point the outcome was never in doubt. The bewildered Gaels tired badly in the closing minutes as they attempted to cope with the blistering pace set up by confident Spartans.

Kotta and McPherson trailed behind Radunich in the scoring column with 12 and 11 points respectively, just ahead of Feeney, who accounted for 10 of the St. Mary's tallies.

San Jose made good on 12 of 21 charity shots while the Gaels hit eight of 13 free throws. The Spartans made nine field goals in

Spartans Meet Broncs Tonight

Clara, 44-27 winner over the Spartans in the first meeting of the two teams, has twice been knocked from the position of certain champions. San Jose turned the trick in the second game of the local series two weeks ago, winning a 42-39 victory from the Barsi five. An obliging San Francisco quintet performed the feature last Wednesday night. Thus with each of the teams holding one victory, this game will be the rubber contest of the 1938 series.

To youthful Bill Hubbard, a win in tonight's contest would mean the fulfillment of his fondest desires. In his second year of big time competition, the Spartan coach has brought San Jose up to a level comparable to that of outstanding coast teams.

Coach Larry Arnerich's freshmen will also be battling for the odd game of the three game series. The State yearlings won the opener in easy fashion, but lost a low scoring match with the Broncs in the second contest.

MAT TEAM Wins Two Frosh Cagers Hand Gaels Decisive 39 To 35 Trouncing

San Jose State's barnstorming wrestling team decisively defeated Fullerton junior college and Whittier college in two matches held in the southern cities over the weekend.

Friday night the Spartan grapplers won from Fullerton junior college 24 to 10, while Saturday night found Whittier on the short end of a 35 to 0 decision. It was the first defeat Fullerton has sustained in three years of competition in the sport.

Result of Whittier matches:

118 pounds—Tonaye (SJ) defeated Lee (W).
135 pounds—Feibig (SJ) defeated Rotsel (W).
145 pounds—Olavarri (SJ) defeated Cook (W).
155 pounds—Wenglein (SJ) de-

Held even on field goals, Coach Larry Arnerich's freshmen cagers cashed in on four more charity shots than the visiting St. Mary's yearlings Friday night to edge out the Moragan frosh five 39-35 in Spartan Pavilion.

Both teams scored an equal number of goals from the court in both halves, but the Spartan frosh tallied seven shots from the foul circle while St. Mary's made good on only three. Crarrying the equality further, both teams had an equal number of chances from the foul line.

San Jose held a 24-19 advantage at half time, a margin which could have been wider except for the scoring activities of Spily, guard for the visitors, who tallied 10 points in the opening half but went without a point in the final period. Carruth, Anderson, and Bachman carried the honors for San Jose in the first half.

Although only 20 fouls were called, the game turned into a rough and tumble affair in the second half. At least one player from either team was on the floor during most of the second half.

Carruth, with 13 points, led the Spartan attack, followed by Anderson and Bachman with eight each. Spily with 10 and Kaiser with nine points paced the St. Mary's squad.

Withycombe, Wempe Second In PAA Meet

HAYWARD PLUNGE, Feb. 18.—In a three-way blanket finish of the 100 meter backstroke here tonight, Frank Weeden, sensational Stanford University freshman, handed Sparta's Captain Howard Withycombe his first defeat of the season during the swimming of the Pacific Association Indoor Championships.

To partially offset this unexpected upset, Al Wempe, number one Spartan sprinter, churned through the water in the 50 meter freestyle to hit the finish rope in second place, just a shade behind Roy Vitousek, Stanford freshman, breaking the PAA record at 23.2 seconds.

As the finals rolled around, Wempe got off to an excellent start, passed Vitousek early in the race, and from the turn until the first lap, but applied the pressure during the final two lengths to windmill his way past Van Dyke, Stockton high school youth, and the University of California entry, and hit the finish line a short yard behind Weeden. If the race had gone to 150 yards, it would have probably gone to the Spartan leader.

Wempe pulled the surprise of the evening in hitting second place in the 50. The first heat saw Newsom and Wempe come in one-two with San Jose's Garcia in fourth spot. Then the third heat found Roy Vitousek, Stanford freshman, breaking the PAA record at 23.2 seconds.

As the finals rolled around, Wempe got off to an excellent start, passed Vitousek early in the race, and from the turn until the finish line was creeping up on Newsom, who barely nosed out the surprising Spartan. Vitousek finished in third place. It must have been a case of underestimation of Wempe's ability.

The 300 meter relay was a dead walkaway for the Palo Alto team after the first 100 meters. Captain Withycombe dorsaled his way far ahead of Stanford's Letteau, and California's Barker to give Jack Windsor a comfortable lead, but from that point on the Bears and Cardinals battled it out for first position.

Harry Baehr, Lloyd Walker, and Delos Bagby failed to qualify in their heats. Baehr swam a dead heat with former San Jose captain, Norman Fitzgerald, for last place in the final heat of the 100 meter freestyle.

It was last week that the administrations of the two schools put an official okay on the meet, and over the week-end, athletic director Dud DeGroot, who officiated two basketball games at Fresno, met with Coach Flint Hanner of Fresno and signed the contract that will bring about a meeting of the two schools.

It is the hope of San Jose State that this first reunion will lead to a gradual return to a full intercollegiate athletic program between the two schools that was broken several years ago when San Jose announced its "help the athlete" policy and resigned from the Far Western Conference.

Coach "Tiny" Hartranft, when contacted about the meet, stated that the Bulldogs have an exceedingly strong team that has meets scheduled with Stanford University and University of Southern California.

During the past two years, the only direct contact the two schools have had in athletics is the West Coast Relay sponsored by Fresno.

President T. W. MacQuarrie, San Jose president, could not be reached yesterday morning for a statement on the reopening of relations.

MUSIC GROUP TO CONTINUE ANNUAL TOURS

Continuing its series of annual tours, the San Jose State Woodwind Ensemble will travel south next week on a five day trip from February 28 to March 4.

Stopping first at Salinas on Monday, the ensemble has engagements in Paso Robles, Arroyo Grande, Atascadero, Bakersfield, Fowler, Kingsbury, Livingston, and Augustine. Besides these, the group is attempting to arrange further engagements in Escalon and Sonora.

Led by Mr. Thomas Eagan of the music department, the ensemble of 11 woodwinds expects to give three concerts a day, one in the morning, one during the afternoon, and one at night.

Most of the programs are to be given in schools in which graduates of the college music department are engaged in teaching. According to Mr. Eagan, these graduates annually sponsor the concerts for the ensemble.

In a prelude to the tour, the woodwind ensemble is playing at the Hayward high school Wednesday of this week.

KINOSCOPE IS TOPIC OF TALK

M. Lucas Discusses Modern Dance At Art Major Meeting

CAMPUS SLEUTHS Study Daily Photos MAY ACCOST YOU

If a tall individual in a black leather jacket, black tie, and tan trousers should come up to you, tap you on the shoulder, and ask if you are John Doe or something, don't be too alarmed, for the law isn't after you. It's just part of the duties of a police student for the Identification of Persons class.

In this class, the future policemen are studying photos which have appeared in the Spartan Daily, and, when seeing the persons afterwards, are instructed to identify them. This all goes to show that it either pays, or doesn't pay, to show your face in the Daily.

Psychologists Sponsor Talk

The Psychology club in cooperation with the Psychology and Philosophy departments, is sponsoring a lecture to be given by Dr. W. Vincent Evans of the University of Chicago Tuesday evening, February 22, at 7 o'clock in Room 110.

The topic of Dr. Evans' lecture is "Modern Propaganda in the Light of Aristotle's Rhetoric".

The lecture is open to the public and all who are interested are invited to attend.

bad weather conditions.

Little is known of the strength of the Athens aggregation, but from results of past season contests, any game with the Oakland club will be a stiff affair. Coach Bishop plans on starting his strongest nine tomorrow and anticipates a tough contest.

Leroy Zimmerman of football fame will probably get the first call on the mound, with Bill Freitas ready in the "bull pen" to relieve him. Carpenter will be saved for the contest with the Oakland Oaks this next Thursday.

The rest of the starting line-up will probably be the same as the Indian fracas, namely, Morati at the signal department, McPherson on first, Sanchez at second, Riordan and Luque at short and third respectively. In the outfield Captain Tony Martinez, Haven Smith and Fink Garcia will cavort.

Famous Japanese To Lecture Today

Dr. Jaju Nakamura, president of the Oriental Summer College in Tokyo, Japan, and a famed educator, will speak today at 3 o'clock in Room 24 on some phase of "Japan Today".

Secured by Dr. William Poytress, head of the Social Science department, Dr. Nakamura is a former member of the Japanese Parliament and is at present on a tour of the United States.

All students and instructors are invited to attend the talk.

Describes Dancing As Universal Motion Of Gesture

By DON PETERSON

In modern dance the performer is obligated to express some thought, emotion or idea which is of universal significance, Miss Marjorie Lucas, instructor of women's physical education, told freshmen and sophomore art majors in a speech on the dance recently in Room 1 of the Art wing.

"Movement is the universal gesture, but to be beautiful it must have meaning behind the motion and should have some emotional content beside," Miss Lucas averred, pointing out that much of our ordinary conversation is accompanied by gestures.

HISTORY OF DANCE

The speaker traced the history of dance from its beginning when the ancient savages first danced to their gods, even as the Hopi Indians now do in their Snake Dance, down to the modern ballet.

Modern dancing should be an expression in movement of the individual, by building up an emotion or mood through the motion and line of the body. You have to give dance form, not just express emotional exuberance by using the hands," Miss Lucas declared.

Hindu Monk Will Speak At Forum

Dr. Mahanam Brata Brahmachari, Hindu monk of the Vaishnava order, will speak before Open Forum meeting tomorrow noon in Room 1 of the Home Economics building.

Dr. Brahmachari, who has just reached California on a lecture tour, is on the world council of the World Fellowship, an organization supported by many prominent Californians, including Chester Rowell and Mrs. David Starr Jordan.

Dr. Brahmachari will speak on "The Ideals of Hindu Life". He will also speak to the "Behind the News" class at 11 on "The Nationalist Movement in India."

Co-Ed Wins Free Press Dance Bid

To Louise Knapp, San Jose State co-ed, last week went the second free bid to the Press club's Headline Hop.

Miss Knapp was reading the Spartan Daily in the college library last Wednesday, when the Press club phantom photographer snapped his now famous "reversed" photo (the one in which he caught himself too).

The phantom camera clicker will prowl the campus again this Wednesday, and on Thursday the final bid winner will be selected.

MANUSCRIPTS SHOULD BE IN BY MARCH 18

Manuscripts for the Phelan contest should be in Dr. Raymond Barry's office by midnight, March 18, Dr. Barry, head of the English department, stated Friday.

With but a few weeks remaining, entrants are urged to watch the deadline closely as manuscripts handed in after that time will not be accepted. Those students planning to enter more than one composition should hand them in as he finishes them. Because of the work of classifying the material entered, it would be advisable not to hand it in at the last minute.

Prizes totaling $300 will be awarded in four fields of creative writing, the short story, essay, one-act play, and poetry. There are four classes in the poetry division, blank verse, free verse, lyrics, and narrative poems.

There is no age limit in the contest and anyone may enter who has been registered in the college for at least one quarter. Manuscripts must be typewritten double spaced and with title and name on a separate sheet.

They may be turned in at Dr. Barry's office or to any member of the English department.

Original One-Act Plays Close Run

The first of its kind in the history of the drama at San Jose State college, an experimental production consisting of four original one-act plays closed Friday evening after two performances before capacity audiences.

Dr. Dorothy Kaucher, Miss Margaret Douglas, and Mr. James Clancy, members of the Speech department, and Garrett Starmer, drama major, wrote the plays.

The plays were directed by their authors, assisted by Mr. Hugh Gillis and Mr. J. Wendell Johnson, technical director.
